14 August 14

("La Source Egyptienne(ENH24: ENH24)") (b) "ENH"(1) will be wearing glasses with dark lenses. Our man is to approach him and say good day(11).

[b] This is presumably a reference to the CAIRO newspaper, Le Bourse Egyptienne, which may have been used as a means of recognition at the meeting. (KIRITA KIRITA, translated literally, means 'the Egyptian Exchange'.)

Comments: (1) XEROX : Unidentified cover name; also appears in WISCONSIN's No. 91 of First July, 1944 (not published) and No. 148 of 24th August, 1944 (3/8887/1713).

[11] 2 This message is a reply to HUNTER's title of 1302A (not published) asking for a repeat from the words "HUNTER HUNTER" to the end of the message.
